AN ANGELIC MYSTIC FOR THE MODERN AGE

Rev. Stephanie Lodge is a licensed minister and practitioner of Metaphysics, as well as an author, transformational speaker, conscious media advisor and Angelic medium and mysteries expert, who specializes in soul empowerment and living light alchemy. As an Angelic Mystic, she shares the wisdom she receives directly from Source as presented through the collective frequencies of light intelligence she calls the Angelic Light Streams. She began her journey of awakening through the guidance of this entourage of Archangelic light beings. Today she refers to herself as a channel of living light, or a Sovereign Light Alchemist. She defines Angels as “Living Light”, instead of simply messengers, since this light has limitless potential in function, purpose and intention. Especially when it transforms into sound vibration and magnetic energy.

She has appeared on several radio programs and advises on conscious media and entertainment through her management group, ZENPIRE Media. When she first stepped out of the “spiritual closet”, she hosted two online radio series. Angels in the Buff featured interviews with some of the leading authorities on spirituality and personal transformation; while Awaken Angels gave advice from the “angel angle” to listeners from around the world. Currently, Stephanie enjoys bringing her heart-centered sacred alchemy to private gatherings, classes and workshops, most recently guiding light during a crystal bowl sound bath working with Lucy the Ancient Angelic Crystal Skull. She continues her spiritual transmissions and teachings through private client programs and online series, as well as her work as “The Hug Angel” Ambassador for the Hug Alliance collaborative. All information on how to connect or work with her is available through StephanieLodge.com.

AS A MYSTIC

Stephanie considers herself a Living Light Stream or “channel” for Source. But, it wasn’t an easy journey to embrace that. As she elevated through different frequencies of vibration, her body had many episodes of severe pain as it adjusted and recalibrated to make room for more photons within her human vessel. It was a process that spanned over 11 years, revealing those areas within her system that blocked her from her true potential. In time, she released them with various light transmissions that she continued to invite into her body and field. She now is able to amplify these light streams into spoken word transmissions that facilitate transformation for her private clients and large groups equally. Her ability in creating sacred energetic fields of various Light Streams and the Angelic presence allows others to experience viscerally the sacred forces that surround us. However, her eternal message is that we all are fully capable of self-healing by aligning with our divine light as the ancients knew, and she believes true modern healers are those who empower others to heal self.

AS A TRANSFORMATIONAL TEACHER

Stephanie’s “science of spirit” approach focuses on elevating our understanding of Angels as energies of light and sound intelligence that design the architecture of all existence, including us. In her opinion, we are all photonic beings of light giving off phononic transmissions of sound vibration. She teaches that our consciousness, our heart’s magnetic field and our sound vibration literally weave a pattern of projection that births our personal reality into existence.

Many of those who are awakening in consciousness have a desire to be of service to humanity at their core, making them slightly more aligned to a living lightness of being or “Angelic” purpose. It is simply a matter of time for all of humanity to step into their true sovereign service by “awakening their angel within” as Stephanie explains often. That said, she is less about empowering beings outside of us to help us, which are often organized into hierarchies and personalities. Instead, she teaches us how to align to our multidimensional aspects of empowerment, where we are fully capable of activating our Archangelic templates of safety, health, love and other archetypal virtues within.

AS AN AUTHOR AND CONSCIOUS MEDIA EXPERT

Stephanie Lodge grew up in Los Angeles as a fourth generation Angeleno, and was an energetically sensitive child. As a creative writer raised by two entertainment industry parents, she naturally gravitated to the same industry and majored in Radio, Television and Film in college. Stephanie self-published her first book, Soul Scars: Rising Phoenix, in 2013, which chronicles her evolution as a spiritual channel through a collection of poetry. She is a licensed practitioner and minister of Metaphysics, holding a BA through the University of Sedona. She’s currently working towards a Masters in Metaphysical Science and a Doctorate in Philosophy. She is also a licensed Reiki practitioner, though she expanded her energy work and pioneered her own light healing process she calls Halonetix. Her next book projects include her autobiography, Crown of Angels and a transformational guide book, Sovereign Light. She also looks forward to creating her first multimedia program for yoga enthusiasts, Photonic Yoga - a living light and sound streamed practice that utilizes breathwork, intentional declarations, and an Angelic Mantra meditation to unify, amplify and ignite our various light fields.

Her corporate background is extremely varied with experience in film and television, public relations, advertising, technology, private jet sales, hedge funds and marketing. All her experience has prepared her as a unique empowerment coach to a wide variety of clients from all areas of influence. In 2013 Stephanie finally stepped into her true calling as an Angelic Light Stream, Intuitive Empowerment Coach and Conscious Media Advisor. Through her company, ZENPIRE Media, she applies her intuitive gifts to helping cultural creative experts in understanding how they influence the collective consciousness through the media they create. Her passion is working with major influencers of media and entertainment, understanding that they have the highest influence on shifting mass consciousness worldwide. She is currently launching a speaking platform, ZENtalks, to bring those influencers together in powerful conversation to inspire conscious change and awakened activism.

AUTHOR SELF-PROMOTION

Stephanie Lodge is unique in that she has her own conscious media group, ZENPIRE MEDIA. With a background in marketing and public relations, she also works as an intuitive consultant to leading metaphysical and conscious organizations, such as the legendary Bodhi Tree bookstore and Inspired Parenting Magazine, both in Los Angeles. Through her email list, Twitter and Instagram feeds and a collective of Facebook pages, she's capable of working extensively to promote any of her proposed books, events and programs as well as those of her clients and partners. Stephanie created her online portal StephanieLodge.com (www.stephanielodge.com) as a blog and ecommerce platform. She also owns AngelicAcademy.com as a proposed member educational site. She is always developing strategic partnerships locally in Los Angeles and is open to all mass media and e-promotional strategies.

THE GLOW

- ❖ “As a life-long Light Worker, I can say that Stephanie Lodge is the real deal. Her work with Angelic Light streaming is powerful and transformative. She is truly connected to Divine intelligence and is able to, not only direct powerful transmissions for spiritual healing, she is also immensely articulate and thus able to convey often times complex and esoteric transmissions so that they are easily accessible to her students. I love attending her Diamond Light Stream meditations. I always leave with some bright new perspective and a shift in my inner consciousness.”

Barbara Wilder, Spiritual Healer & Author of Money is Love and Embracing Your Power Woman

- ❖ “When experiencing Stephanie's Diamond Light Magnetics process for the first time, I placed a camera crew and myself with a full and happy cast within what she calls my "Diamond Heart." Within one week I was booked for 3 days on a new sitcom. It had been over 2 years since I had booked a network show. It was so clear to me that it came directly from her unique guided meditation. I was ecstatic and the work and people I worked with all made the experience like heaven on earth for me. It was like the best party I was ever invited to, and I created it! I am so grateful for learning this powerful process.”

Rev. Nancy B. Berggren, Minister & Author of Life is a Game...and You Can Play It

- ❖ “I consider Stephanie a colleague, but more importantly a friend. Her warmth, genuine personality and ability to utilize the information she gets not only from the angels, but other wise beings can be life changing. I would highly recommend anyone to have a session with Stephanie.”

Chris Alexandria, Transformation Coach and Creator of Angel Chatter

- ❖ “Stephanie, as my main spiritual advisor, has been an integral part of my spiritual path. She is a constant support system to help me get my life's journey back on track. She helps to educate me on how to understand daily roadblocks and belief systems. She helps me to strengthen the belief that I can listen to my own inner voice for direction so I don't rely on someone else to do it for me. This I believe is a definite sign of a true lightworker. I highly recommend Stephanie's vision and light to guide you on your path to spiritual self-mastery.”

RADIO/VIDEO SEGMENT SUGGESTION

POTENTIAL TITLE: “The Power of Angelic Science”

TITLE DESCRIPTION

If the concept of Angels with wings and halos is too ‘out there’ or just ‘out of reach’ for you, then Stephanie Lodge is the perfect bridge to seeing them in a whole new light. As an intuitive medium and healer, Stephanie has come to understand Angels in her own unique way, which is more of a spiritual technology or science that anyone can benefit from. Stephanie will explain how she came to ‘know’ the Sovereign Angelic Light Stream as a field of intelligence that is interactive, supportive and at times even entertaining. Join us as we journey into this stream with Stephanie as our guide, giving us tips and techniques to find true inner peace through the power and healing of Angelic light and frequency.
